

Vydavateľstvo Macmillan Education v spolupráci s distribútorom Oxico v Bratislave srdečne pozýva učiteľov ANJ všetkých typov základných škôl na metodický seminár

Cooperation and communication: hand in hand, together we can!

Joanne Ramsden works full time in a Spanish state school as part of the MECD-British Council Bilingual Project. She is currently teaching Science, Arts and Crafts and English Language in lower primary. She is the author of Macmillan Natural & Social Science 1 & 2, Magic Phonics, and is also co-author of Play with Patch and Patch the Puppy 1 & 2 and Give me Five! levels 1-4. She has been involved in the local training programme for Bilingual Schools since it began in 2009 and has given training courses on Synthetic Phonics, CLIL methodology and Arts and Crafts both nationally and internationally. She has done several workshops about teaching Young Learners at international ELT conferences.

Termín: 26. apríl 2019 od 10:30 do 12:00 hod.

Miesto: Oxico, Panónska cesta 6, Bratislava

Lektor: Joanne Ramsden (Teacher Trainer, Teacher, Author)

Cooperation and communication: hand in hand, together we can!

The development of effective communication and cooperative skills is essential for modern life. Cooperative learning encourages participation and allows every learner to make an active and positive contribution to the class. We will explore practical activities to ensure our students begin to communicate confidently through engaging tasks.
