Finger Friends routine: Hello, Peter and Goodbye, Sally (optional)
Goodbye Chant

Activity 1 Finger Friends routine: Hello, Peter and Goodbye, Sally

- Greet the children. Say Hello! The children answer Hello! If they don't answer, say Hello! again and put your hand behind your ear to show them you are waiting for their answer.
- Use your index fingers, with finger puppets if you have them, to act out a dialogue. Call your fingers, or the puppets, Sally and Peter. Play the cassette, or say the words yourself, as you move your fingers. Move the finger which is 'talking' and keep the 'listening' finger still. The 'talking' finger should be positioned above the 'listening' finger.

TAPESCRIPT

Sally: Hello! My name is Sally.
Peter: Hello! My name is Peter.
Sally: Hello, Peter!
Peter: Hello, Sally!
Sally: Goodbye, Peter!
Peter: Goodbye, Sally!

- Play the dialogue again and encourage the children to join in with the words and actions.

Activity 2 Asking and answering What's your name?

- If there is room the children sit in a semi-circle at the front of the classroom. If not, they remain at their desks. Make sure that every child can see you clearly.
- Make fists of your hands and put them behind your back. Pause for a moment, then suddenly bring one fist out and raise the index finger. Move your finger up and down and say Hello, boys and girls! Hello!
- Repeat the procedure, greeting different individuals, e.g. Hello, Daniel! Hello!

- Bring out your other fist. Raise the index finger and say Hello! to the class, moving the finger up and down. Point to yourself and ask What's your name? Answer My name is (your own name). Ask different children What's your name? When the child answers e.g. My name is Susan, move your finger and say Hello, Susan!
- If the children have been sitting at the front, ask them to go back to their desks.

Activity 3 Knock, Knock Game

- In pairs the children ask and answer e.g. What's your name? My name is Mary.
- Ask two children, preferably a boy and a girl, to come to the front of the class. Say e.g. Come here, David. Come here, Ann.
- Show them how to hold hands and raise them above their heads in an arch to form a 'door'.
- Ask another child to come to the front. Say e.g. Helen, come here. Then say Knock on the door. Knock, knock! Knock on the imaginary door yourself to show what you mean and then let the child do it.
- The two children playing the door ask What's your name? The child answers e.g. My name is Helen. She then goes through the 'door' and back to her desk, while the class claps.
- Repeat the game with the rest of the children, encouraging the class to clap as each child returns to their desk. If the children playing the door get tired, replace them with another pair.
- At the end of the game, ask the class to applaud the children who were playing the door. Say Thank you, door! and clap.

Activity 4 Writing their names

Afterwards say Well done! Repeat this with several more children, congratulating them when they have written their names correctly.
- Then ask the class to write their names on the sticker and put it on their chest. That will help you to remember their names, if you don't know them yet.

Activity 5 Goodbye Chant

- Say to several children e.g. Laura, You are a girl, Daniel, you are a boy. Separate the class into two groups: boys and girls.
- Say Let's sing the Goodbye chant. Ask the boys' group to wave their hands when they hear boys and the girls' group to wave their hands when they hear girls. Play the cassette.
